

PONOR

Ovo je kraj

Ponor is a four-piece band from Zagreb formed in November 2011. For the past fifteen-or-so years, band members were active in many independent bands that achieved great results on the regional and European scene (Senata Fox, Amok, Storms, Sentence, Gardens of Hiroshima...). The band balances its sound between hard core, punk and metal that some reviewers compared to the legacy of bands such as Integrity, Rise and Fall, Rot in Hell.

The eclectic debut album, Ovo je kraj, was recorded and released in digital form in October 2013. A uniform sound of 8 short songs, and effective lyrics written in Croatian introduce refreshment onto domestic underground and independent music scene, verbally configuring the negativities of the modern world. From time to time, the atmosphere serves as a reminder to former giants, such as Amebix and Discharge, which is a plus by itself.

The album is recorded, mixed and mastered in studio Kut Sobe in Zagreb, which, from project to project, imposes itself as an inevitable partner in crime of many most recent domestic releases from the past couple of seasons, in practically every genre.

In August 2014, Ponor, in collaboration with PDV Records, DHP AK47 and My Favourite Records releases Ovo je kraj LP on vinyl, which includes a bonus track, a previously unreleased cover of a song called Between a Day from the band Brightness from Zagreb.

Visual and graphic design, made by the author Slobodan Alavanja (5L081CH.6R4PH1C5), is effectively coordinated with the corresponding music content. The photography is a work of Goran Šarić – Scarlaw and the band logotype credits go to Miro Petković – Modul 8.

A dark, interesting and compact album is given to us. In time, it will gain many fans and leave its mark on the domestic guitar (and bass!) distortion terrain as well as in the field of insightful lyrics about present times and ourselves.
